ARRIVALS FEW IN PORT TODAY

GILL NETTERS LANDED BULK OF FARES SINCE YES-TERDAY.

Fresh fish receipts at this port fell off considerably since yesterday morning, and today there is practically nothing doing as far as the arrivals of vessels is concerned. The dragger Mystic, came down from Boston yesterday afternoon with 30,000 pounds of haddock for the Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company, being the only arrival to land outside of the gill netters which brought around 36,000 pounds of fish. Nearly all of the seining fleet has sailed on the second leg of their season's work, but three or four craft remaining in port.

NEW DRAGGER READY TO LEAVE YARDS AT ESSEX

The new dragger Exeter, one of five being built at Quincy and Essex for the General Seafoods, is nearly ready for launching from the shipyard of J. F. James and Sons at Essex. The Exeter, a sister ship of the Andover, Amherst and Cornell, will probably take the water early next week.

LIGHT RECEIPTS AGAIN TODAY

ONE TRAWLER AND ONE DRAGGER
WEIGHED OUT YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Light receipts of fish prevailed today, and up to noon, the only fare received was a small trip from the dragger Grace and Evelyn which was taken out at the General Seafoods corporation. Yesterday afternoon the trawler A. Piatt Andrew discharged a fare of 11,000 pounds at Powers & MacDonald's, and the off-shore dragger William L. Putnam divided a fare of 60,000 pounds with the splitters and fillet plant at Gorton-Pew's. Gill netters had fair receipts yesterday afternoon.

N. F. Cod News.
There is nothing for the better to report in the codfish market just now. This week's consumption at Oporto is less than last week. Prices are extremely low and local dealers have suffered heavily on last year's transactions. Matters will brighten up. We must hope for the best. There is one thing sure, and that is, that some improvement will have to be made in the cure and cull of the fish and more care exercised in sending shipments away.—St. John's Trade Review.

FISH SCARCE AGAIN TODAY

ONLY ARRIVAL YESTERDAY WAS HALIBUTER TO REFIT.

Fish were scarce today, for up to noon the arrivals had been limited. Even the gill netters failed to land yesterday, remaining in port on account of the easterly. The halibuter Pollyanna came down from Boston late yesterday afternoon with a small fare of salt fish for the Gorton-Pew Company, and about 40,000 pounds of fresh fish came overland from Boston for the same concern.
